In the book, Except Antarctica, the animal characters make it to Antarctica!
BUT IT'S NOT EXACTLY WHAT THEY EXPECTED!

1. Are the animals comfortable in Antarctica? Why not?

2. Should the animals have stayed home?

3. Do you think the characters regret coming to Antarctica?

4. Can trying something new be scary, fun, or both at the same time?

5. If you knew an adventure might not turn out just the way you want it to, would you try it anyway? Why or why not?
